Speeches were made by Gov. Bore man, Hon. W. E. Stevenson, Presiden

of the Senate, Prof. W. R. White and J. T. Hoke, Esq., editor of the Berkeley James Wilson, of Wheeling, offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That our confidence in the honesty, integrity and patriotism of Andrew Johnson, our President, is un-thiminished. A resolution was adopted, requesting all the local papers in the State to pub-lish the proceedings of the meeting. State and county compiltees were ap-pointed, but as the list was not quite complete, we defer their publication until to-morrow morning. The county committees are intended to do the necessury work for the several counties etings can beheld and committees appointed by them.

Trustees to protect the State's interest therein.

Platform of the Union Party of West Virginia.

The hour for celebrating Washington's birth-day by the reading of the Farewell Address in a joint meeting of the two branches, having arrived, the Senate proceeded to the House where Mr. Mair's read the address.

The Senate subsequently resumed its business, and Mr. Burley reported back a very interesting, respectable and satisfactory one. The chamber was well filled with citizens from the city and various parts of the State, and with the Wayne county Coal and Iron Railway Company; and the substitute was adopted; when the Senate took a recess.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House Bill to regulate the regis-ration of voters was taken up on its

tration of voters was taken up on its second reading.

Mr. Peck moved to strike out that part of the bill which empowers the registrors to refuse to register the names of persons who take the test oath, if he is satisfied after diligent inquiry from the evidence brought to his oath, if he is satisfied after dilligent in-quiry from the evidence brought to his knowledge that the applicant has com-mitted any of the acts mentioned in the affidavit.

Messrs. Peck, Slack, Burdett and O'Brien favored the amendment in spirited addresses, and Messrs. Chap-line, Kitchen, Chambers and Hagar opposed it with much earnestness.

Pending the amendment the bill was tabled. Adjourned.

House of Delegates.

House of Belegates.

Mr. Goff, from the Committee on Finance, reported a bill for the relief of James Odbert, late Sheriff of Monongalia county, and a bill amending the assessment law so far as relates to railroad companies. The latter bill also proposes to release the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad from the payment of back taxes on the payment to the State of $25,000.

& Ohio Railroad from the payment of back taxes on the payment to the State of $25,000.

Mr. McWhorter, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to legalize the qualification of two Justices of Upshur county. He reported it inexpedient to grant the petitions of clitzens of Hampshire for a stay law, or of Margaret Emory for a divorce.

Mr. Hagans, from the Committee on Roads, reported it inexpedient to grant the petitions of clitzens of Ritchie county for an appropriation for a road, or a petition of citizens of Upshur for an appropriation for a road, or a petition of citizens of Upshur for an appropriation for a road a form Flemington to Maxwell's Mills, and inexpedient to make an appropriation to build a bridge across the Potomae river, at Piedmont. He also reported a bill remodeling the road law.

Mr. Cassady, from the Committee on Counties, reported a bill to amend the charter of Sistersville, and a bill authorizing the people of Hampshire county to select a permanent county seat, and reported it inexpedient to allow the people of Mercer to change their county seat, sense Bill No. 54, for the relief of the Overseers of the Poor of Brooke county.

Senate Bill No. 54, for the relief of the Senate Bill No. 64, changing the times of holding couris in the 6th and 7th circuits. The latter bill was on Mr. Goff's motion, read three times and passed passed.

The other Senate Bills passed were:
Senate Bill No. 42, amending the charter of Fairmont.
Senate Bill No. 56, in relation to actions of detinue. ate Bill No. 21, incorporating the town of Ceredo.

The House Bills passed:

House Bill No. 36, providing for a House Bill No. 36, providing for a system of free schools.

No. 70, to settle the boundary line between the counties of Barbour and Upshur, and the House substitute for Senate bill No. 28, providing for an agricultural college.
At eleven o'clock the Senate in response to invitation of the House repaired to the hall of the latter, where the farewell address of George Washington to the American people was read by Mr. Mairs, of Kanawha.
The bills appropriating $2200 to the

by Mr. Mairs, of Kanawha.

The bills appropriating $3200 to the East River and Wyoming road, $5000 to rebuild a bridge in Greenbrier county and $1000 to construct a road in Taylor county, were all defeated.

The bill fixing the terms of the Wheeling Municipal Court for civil business was so amended, on motion of Mr. Bell, as to provide for eight terms in a year to be held in those months when they will not interfere with the terms of the Circuit Court, and the bill will probably pass in that shape today.

will probably pass in that shape today.

On motion of Mr. Zinn, a report made some time since by the Judiciary Committee, unfavorable to any change of the law in relation to divorces, was taken up, and Mr.
Zinn moved that it be recommitted with instructions to report a bill allowing divorces to be obtained on the ground of abandonment for three years. Mr. Zinn advocated his motion in several speeches, and it was opposed by Messrs. McWhorter and Johnson, and lost. The report of the committee was then adopted.

Mr. Zinn presented the petition of citizans of Randolph and Pendleton counties, asking the formation of a new county of parts of those counties.

On motion of Mr. Bee, the Committee on Roads was directed to inquire into the expediency of appropriating $2.000
